Commercial Advertiser.

New York, in great distress, to borrow $100,-000 for a year, saying that he must have it and that his business would justify him in paying any rate of interest. Mr. King told him that no business could stand a premium of three per cent a month, but finding him hard to convince, took years? I will discount your note for $100,000 if you make it three years."

"Thank you, Mr. King. I will draw it at

" No. sir. Mr. Miller, (turning to his accountant,) take off the discount at three per cent, a month on $100,000 for three years, and draw a check for the balance for Mr. D. Wait a moment, D., give me your note for $100,000." The conversation became general, both were seated, when Mr. Miller, the accountant, handed the following memorandum to Mr. King:

"Why, Miller has handed me a statement, and I find that if we discount or shave your note for three years for $100,000 at three per cent a "Why, this is absurd. I give you my note purposely to give you a lesson-to show you where your mercantile career will end if you submit to such extortion. Now, if you will pledge me your word of honor that you will curtail your business, and never pay more than seven per cent. interest to carry on your trade, I will tell you what I will do. You want $100,000. Draw your note for that sum at ninety days, leave with me $100,000 of your best notes receivable, and I will give you the money, less the ordinary dis-son taught by Mr. King, and he is, at the present moment, one of the wealthiest men in the city of New York.

what we may fairly call a mortal combat between man and the horse. A powerful and most beautiful thorough-bred stallion was introduced into the PREPARED GLUE, MARBLE SLABS, arena. The horse looked around the audience, stood on his hind legs, plowed up the ground, and presented the most vivid picture of a wild and irreclaimable beast. He literally roared in fury, and kicked out of pure viciousness. He snapped at the groom and Mr. Rarey, and actually bit his own flesh severely in his passion. He tore to pieces every strap which was placed upon him, harling the groom, who had come to Mr. Rarey's assistance, ignominiously the whole length of the arena. At one time the horse broke clear away from all, and stood for a moment as a conscious victor in the midst of the excited audience. Mr. Dycer and Mr. Farrel both came to Mr. Rarey's help, but they were utterly unable to hold the animal. He scattered every man and everything around him like chaff. He was bathed in a white foam, and sending up rolling clouds of vapor from his body. At one moment he tossed up the straw wildly, at another he sent the strong barriers flying in all directions and for some time he stood the complete personification of diablerie alone in the arena, roaring furiously. and tearing at the barriers with his teeth. Mr. R. having washed his hands and rested for a few minutes, again ventured to approach him. Then began a contest which no one who witnessed it can ever forget. It was a struggle of art and tact against overwhelming strength. Whoever saw that combat could never be skeptical as to the wonderful power of Mr. Rarey. For full an hour the battle, for it was nothing else, continued, now the man had gained the victory, now the horse; and the animal, touching the earth, seemed to derive fresh strength from every fall. At last Mr. Rarey extemporized a strap from the fragments of the broken bridle, and had gained his first step to conquest; still the horse fought furiously, rising in the air, plunging in all directions, endeavoring to bite his assailant or trample him down. It gave some idea of the animating scenes of the Roman amphitheater to see a compact, slight but sinewy man confronting so furious and so vicious an animal. A long struggle ensued, but eventually the horse was fairly beaten out, and lay down panting and thoroughly subdued .- Irish Times.

Humors of the Census.

census sometimes experience annoyances, yet they occasionally meet with persons who afford them no little amusement. Their task is often a hard from those who do not really understand the imtions is in the interior, at a place somewhat remaiden lady" whom he had addressed on the

"Taking the senses, air you! Well, I reckon you can't take none here." She was indignant at his first remark. "Taint none of your business who lives here, nor who owns this place. It's paid for, and every cent of tax on it tew. 'Taint best for ye tew come snooping around to find out matters that don't concarn you Her body interposed at the doorway, although thin and wiry, prevented his passage into the house. The marshal would gladly have taken a seat, but she offered no such luxury to her inquisitor. "Hey I ever been marrit? Well, what next, I wonder. Perhaps you'd like to have our pedigree right down from Adam. But you cant! I 'spect you're some fellow from York, come out of the law and particularly to convince her that he was not a resident of Gotham. He utterly failed, however, for his next question only in creased her anger. "Hev I got any children! Why, you impertinent puppy, how dare you asperse my character. Here hev I lived for forty-Er you doubt my respectability you'd better go to our minister, he knows all about me; he lived here when I was born; he knows that all I possess down to the village, worth altogether about fifteen thousand dollars. He can tell you that I lived with my father till he died, having no brothers and no children; he is well acquainted with the folks living with me, which is a little girl, a farm man and a big stout Irish girl. But you can't get any information out of me. I'm a woman of few

The good woman had now worked herself into a passion and turning away slammed the door in his face. From her remarks, however, he gained the following facts: "Miss Abigail -, aged fortyeight; never married; has no children; property worth $15,000; has no brothers or sisters; carries information he cared to possess.—N. MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Fernale Physician, presents to the sta SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the guns, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spanneds action.

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS. We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and CAN SAY, IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we never have been able to any of any other medicine, -NEVER HAS IT FAILED, INA SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of disastisfaction by any one who can jt. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter " WHAT WE DO KNOW," after tru years experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FUL-FILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In shoot every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EI-PERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in THOUSANDS OF CASES. It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the cieus and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the while system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedly remedied, end in death. We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIAR-RHIEAIN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teathing, or from any other cause. We would my to every mother who has a child sellering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PRIJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between you and your suffering child, and the relief, that will be SURE—yes ARSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if tinely the company each balls.
